Uncle Tom's Cabin.

Of the Uncle Tom's Cabin Co., which is to appear at Carson Opera House to night the daily Columbian says:

It is seldom that any theatrical company meets with such a reception as was accorded the New Orleans Uncle Tom's Cabin combination on their appearance Saturday evening last in Herring's Opera House. Long before the hour of commencement most of the seats were taken and those who came late had to stand throughout the whole performance. The house was packed from orchestra chairs to gallery with a most appreciative audience, which was more than could reasonably have been expected, considering the number of times the piece has been played in this city. The celebrated Gold Band opened the program with a bright and sparkling overture, in which was introduced a sand jig with much success. The play is too well known to require description. The players one and all performed their parts very creditably. The comic element and the burlesque were very good, while the more serious parts of the play were brought to a successful issue with much effect, the blood hounds doing their share of the business in good style.

District Court.

Court convened at 10 A. M. yesterday Judge Rising presiding.

On motion of District Attorney the remaining two indictments against Arthur Leonard were dismissed.

In the case of Carson City vs. Wm. Woodburn, the case was given to defendant. The case was brought to enforce payment of city license on a practicing attorney, and contested on the ground that an attorney being an officer of the Court, was not subject to license.

South Camp.

Ed. Stevenson has returned from South Camp with a magnificent crop of Spring whiskers. When he walked into the house his wife set the dog on him, thinking he was a tramp. He soon topped up in citizen's regalia, and now swells around town like any other mining million ire.

A. C. Pratt and himself have been knocking the gold out of some rock in their stamp mill the last month, and when the cleanup is made there will probably be two new candidates in the field for U. S. Senator.

Some fifteen years ago John Trout Assessor, and at one time Sheriff of Toulumne county, California, left Sonora in a mysterious manner. No one knew why he went. Last Monday the bleached bones of the missing man were found. They were in a deep gulch about two miles from Sonora. The skeleton was leaning against a big rock, and by the side of it was found a revolver, two chambers of which were empty, a pocket knife and a two bit piece. Identification was made by means of a protuberance on the back of the head.—Times Review.

The musical critic of the Salt Lake Tribune gives Miss Lily Schneider, of this city, a very fine notice of the musicale given by her and her pupils. It says in conclusion: Miss Schneider made an excellent impression. Her voice is rounding out more than ever. She has a perfect control of it, and her dramatic powers are well made use of in the divine art. Miss Schneider is justly a favorite, and will continue so long as she remains in this city.

A Dayton dispatch says: Oxtown in opposition to railroads were an interesting sight here Saturday morning. The leading merchant of Bodie, Cal., is now having all his freight hauled from Carson by the method first mentioned, in preference to giving it to the railroad, as he finds it cheaper and pleasanter all around."
